

Weymouth.

April 30. 1852

Dear Mr May,

Mr Wallcut told me to day that you were going to take some copies of Mr Garrison's book to the Annual meeting for sale. Might I trespass on your kindness so far as to ask if it would be possible for you to take a few copies of the Liberty-Bell to Prochester & see if they could be disposed of there? By means of sales there, & some which may be made at New Bedford if by the we hold a Fair

there, I shall pay what remains of the Liberty Bells accounts. If you are too busy to attend to this perhaps Mr Pillsbury would do it.
I wish to sell off all this year's Bell before we get up another.

We were extremely sorry to lose a visit from Mrs May & yourself
but hope you may come some time during the summer.

You will be much interested with reading Mr Estlin's letter to Mr Quincy. What a valuable work does

prove to be.

Yrs very truly

A. W. Coe
